- Two events to be aware of for tomorrow, Saturday April 29th, Marion sent word to Beth to remind us of the YMCA sponsored Healthy Kids Day. Details are on both our web site and the YMCA web site. Also tomorrow is the Allston-Brighton Kiwanis Club's annual Kiwanis Star event. Both Dave and I, along with family members, plan on representing our club. Again, details can be found on our web site.
- Joe Murphy reminded us that The Chef's Table Foundation is teaming up with the Corrib Pub this year for the Corrib's annual Road Race. This year's event will take place on June 4th. A donation of $130 towards the event will cover your entry fee to the race, get you an official event T-Shirt, Food & Drink and much more. Not to mention supporting the Chef's Table Foundation. I am sure Joe will have more information for us at future meetings. Log onto the Chef's Table Foundation Web Site for more information as well, www.chefstablefoundation.org.
- We have two foursomes planned for the upcoming 25th Annual Deutsches Altenheim Golf Classic, this year at the Franklin Country Club. Yours truly along with Jim Hennigan and two guests will make up the first team. Ken Cunningham can use one more golfer to complete his foursome. Let us know if you are interested.
- Speaking of Golf, the annual YMCA Golf Tournament is well into its planning stages and is scheduled for September 29th. I am sure we will have at least one foursome for that fun event!
- Our May 11th meeting (pending approval by the Altenheim) will be at the Bierstube in Edelweiss Village at the Deutsches Altenheim. We look forward to seeing our very good friend Henry Winkler on that date! Also, President Sean Brennan has announced that we will now be having the drawing for our Progressive Raffle on that date as well. Let's have a great showing that day!

Sean Brennan and Beth Arienti plan on representing our club at this event. Also on May 12th, the YMCA will be dedicating the Community Room at the Y in honor of Mary Mulvey Jacobson. We hope to have a few representatives from our Club Available for this special event as well. Again, look for details on both our Web Site and the YMCA Web Site.
