

Here is a summary of today's Thursday 11/2/17 meeting:

•Most of today's meeting focused on our Auction. One short day until our big day! All of the Auction Items and Ad Sales have been received. Kathleen, from the YMCA, is hard at work on the 2nd draft of the Program. We are ready to rumble! Ken Cunningham and Donna Arthur will be meeting at McNeil Insurance tomorrow at 2:30 to pick up all of the auction items and will be delivering them at the Elks by 3pm. If you are planning on assisting on set-up, please plan to meet us there at 3. Warren Frank and the Food Committee are looking for volunteers to pick up the food. Let me know if you can help out. Some of the food will be delivered. Here is the Schedule for the items that need to be picked up:

1. Yellow Bird, scheduled pickup 3:00pm, Sean Brennan.
2. JP Licks, scheduled pickup 3:00pm, Sean Brennan.
3. The Corrib Pub, scheduled pickup 4pm, Jim Hennigan.
4. Harrows, scheduled pickup 3pm, Marion Kelly.
5. Pleasant Café, scheduled pickup 5pm, LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEER.
6. West Napoli, scheduled pickup 4:30pm, Jim Hennigan.
7. Deno's, scheduled pickup 4:30pm, LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEER.
8. Ron's Ice Cream, scheduled pickup 4pm, LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEER.

•The Parkway Kettle Campaign for 2017 is right around the corner. Our Club will be ringing the bells at Roche Brothers on Thursday November 30th. Most of the time slots are already filled. Still looking to fill the 5 & 6 o'clock slots. Let me know if you can help out. Our club may be signing up for a second day as well. Stay tuned. If you would like to ring the bell for yourself or your business, please contact Jim Hennigan to schedule a time.

•On Tuesday, November 7th, a few of us will be visiting the Allston/Brighton Kiwanis Club at the Stockyard Restaurant in Brighton at 12:00pm. Eddy Andelman will be their guest speaker. If you are interested, please let me know ASAP, as we need to RSVP. Cost for the luncheon will be $20.

I believe that will be all for now. See you all (or most of you) tomorrow!
